Mr. B. L. Belden,
Am. Num. Society,
New York City.

My dear Mr. Belden:-

I notice that Mr. Huntington has given the Society a plot of ground. Possibly you will wish to make use of some of our work in preparing a suitable acknowledgment. We might make you a little book, with parchment pages, somewhat after the manner of memorials we have made for you but with a colored cover and brighter colors in the illumination.

Should you like to see what we can do in this connection I should be glad to call upon, with specimens, if you will make appointment.

Awaiting your pleasure, I
